Rain on the picnic

Read the story. Use its clues to answer the questions.

A drop fell on Ben’s nose. Then one landed on the picnic blanket. “Quick!” said Jo. They each took a corner and carried the blanket to the shelter. Jo brought the basket. Rain drummed on the roof while they ate. Jo held out a cup. Plink! A drop landed inside.

What landed on Ben’s nose?

How did the friends move the blanket?

Why could they eat while it rained?
